

Supplementary Financial Statement

Must be submitted with Petition to Alter/Terminate Contract

Petitions to terminate a contract based on financial reasons are generally not approved unless the resident is in a state of compelling need. This is a situation where all possible resources (e.g., parents, student earnings, Federal, State, and University financial assistance, etc.) have been utilized and the resident is still unable to meet contract costs and remain at the university without relocating to less expensive housing. However, educational loans are considered as a reasonable means to meet the responsibilities of the housing contract. Contract termination will not be approved based solely on the availability of less expensive housing in the absence of compelling financial need.
